ABOUT THE INSTITUTIONS

Government College of Engineering and Technology, Jammu (GCET)

GCET Jammu, established under the Department of Higher Education, Govt. of J&K, and affiliated with the University of Jammu, is an AICTE-approved institution with a vision to provide valuable resources for industry and society. The Institute offers both UG and PG programs in various engineering streams and has completed 30 years of excellence in technical education and research. GCET has been conferred autonomous status by the UGC, Gol. Its alumni have excelled globally in government, public sector, and private organizations. The Institute also offers consultancy services to various government and semi-government agencies.

Indian Institute of Technology, Kharagpur

The Indian Institute of Technology (IIT) Kharagpur is a premier Engineering Institution established by the Government of India in 1951 in the State of West Bengal. It is the first of the IITs to be established and is recognized as an Institute of National Importance by the Government of India. The aim of the Institute is to provide meaningful education to conduct original research of the highest standard and to provide leadership in technological innovation for the industrial growth of the country.

World Consortium of Universities

The World Consortium of Universities (WCU) is institutionalized with the mission of interdisciplinary unification of education and research organizations, institutions, and universities across the world for facilitation of primary, secondary, and higher education within a culture of integrity and responsibility towards humankind. WCU has been a joint attempt of multiple academic, research, and corporate organizations including AASGON - U.K., AAHEA - USA, IPMA - Nigeria, and some more.

HIGHLIGHTS OF NCEEITET

The event attracts delegates from across the country, including students, academicians, and professionals from renowned industries and government departments. Student delegates from prestigious engineering institutes in India showcase their innovative projects and working models on emerging technologies. Additionally, leading industries such as POWERGRID, JKPDC, DRDO, IRCON, Konkan Railways, CVPP, TATA Power, BSNL, NHPC, etc. exhibit their cutting-edge ideas and technological advancements. The event features paper presentations, student-industry interactive sessions, and keynote speeches from eminent speakers. A key highlight of the event is the workshop/summit focused on startup programs, aimed at fostering entrepreneurial and management skills among participants.

11th NCEEITET OBJECTIVES

The current Conference and Exhibition aims to:

- Provide a platform for researchers, practitioners, educators, and entrepreneurs to discuss innovations, trends, and challenges in various engineering disciplines.
- Offer students, industries, and startups the opportunity to showcase projects, models, business plans, and technologies.
- Inspire young engineers to foster research, innovation, and entrepreneurship.
- Promote industry-academia collaboration through joint paper presentations and panel discussions.
- Facilitate interactions between students, professionals, and industry experts, expanding career opportunities and professional growth.
- Disseminate knowledge to researchers and entrepreneurs via invited talks by eminent speakers.

THRUST AREAS

Papers are invited for the conference in multiple areas of interest that include, but are not limited to:

- Autonomous System
- Entrepreneurship
- Machine Learning/AI
- Robotics & Mechatronics
- Power Systems & Smart Grids
- Cyber security & Privacy
- Block Chain & Cryptography
- Big Data & Cloud Computing
- Innovation in Construction Technology
- Embedded System and IOT Applications
- Sustainable Architecture & Smart Cities
- Communication Engineering and Systems
- Green Technology & Sustainable Engineering
- Renewable Energy & Environmental Solutions
- Applied Science & Interdisciplinary Technologies
- Advance Manufacturing & Industrial Automation

PAPER & ABSTRACT SUBMISSION / PUBLICATION

Accepted papers of the conference will be published in the Conference e-Proceeding by the publishing partner with unique ISBN registered with Australian ISBN Agency and made available for sale and reference. Top research articles that meet the requisite standards of the respective publisher may be published in IARS' International Research Journal, indexed with many global databases including CAB Abstracts, Brill's Linguistic Bibliography, MLA - Modern Language Association Database and many more.
