

1. Introduction

Premier institutions like IIT Kharagpur are culmination of brightest minds with a society full of high brain activity individuals – students, faculty, non-teaching staff and their families. An amazing group of about 30,000 people residing on a campus, working, interacting, and going through a process of evolution at a critical juncture of life. While academic and competitive pressure is at an all-time high in their experience of life, the students experience a general standard of stress and anxiety throughout their stay on the campus.

Moreover, it is time for them to learn skills that can help them navigate their creativity in such a way that they are able to release all Negative energies. Art is one of the best tools and so is Music. We have combined both and created a unique Music & Fine Arts Workshop that helps a general person to convert their feelings of music to visual art, something that can help these bright young minds in ways more than one.

Anthellion School of Art (ASA) is a 6-year-old ISO 9001:2015 certified Art Organization based out of Kolkata, India. We teach Fine Arts to people of all ages from 8 to 80. We also organize Exhibitions, Workshops, Art Camps etc., for our students as well as organizations who intend to work in this field. Our main intention is to create a professional platform for Fine Arts which can be accessed by students of any age and geography.

2. The Requirement

With respect to our previous discussions IIT Kharagpur is willing to organize our unique Music & Fine Arts Workshop for its students, faculty, non-teaching staff and their families. The Workshop will be a unique experience to listen to a song, realize the feelings a person is having while listening to the music and then converting it into a painting.

Academy of Classical & Folk Arts (ACFA), IIT KGP would like to organize a One Day workshop where registered participants shall be experiencing the Music & Fine Arts Fusion Workshop conducted by Anthellion School of Art

The Purpose: The purpose of this event is to provide a different paradigm of aesthetically creative experience to the participants creating a symphony of Music and Art as per the vision of the Academy.

The Target Audience: As we understand that the primary audience are the students, faculty, non-teaching staff and their families.

3. The Proposal

With respect to the previous discussion, Anthelion School of Art (ASA) proposes to organize a unique Music & Fine Arts Fusion Workshop of One Day on 16th March 2024 at the IIT Kharagpur Campus for the Academy of Classical and Folk Arts, IIT KGP. It shall be about 6-hour workshop where participants will be learning to develop a painting from a song.

The Broad Concept: ACFA, IITKGP shall be registering participants for the event. Anyone above 10 years old is allowed to participate. Once the registration is over, we should be getting the list with 4 major information – Name, Contact No., Age, Previous Experience in Painting (in years).

With this information we shall organize the participants into 6 – 8 equal groups and each shall be given a song to listen to carefully. We shall also share video instructions and methodology to analyze the song. This is a pre-event activity.

On the day of the event, we shall structure the groups and first give a general presentation about composition development then help each group and their members to develop the composition on paper first and then Canvas Boards.

Anthelion School of Art shall organize all Art Materials needed for the event.

Salient Features and Key Responsibility Distribution –

1. ACFA shall do the registration through proper promotion to the Students, Faculty, Non-teaching staff and their families.
2. ACFA will provide the Venue – One big size Hall / Open space with required tables for the participants.
3. Workshop Hours will be 9 am to 4 pm, with Two tea breaks (of 15 min each) and a Lunch Break (of 30 min).
4. The selection of the songs will be done mutually. ACFA may send a list of 10-15 songs in Hindi, and we shall put in our thoughts in terms of their creative content and then we can finalize on that as soon as the event is finalized.
